DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Adderton et al.

Regarding claim 11 Adderton teaches a sensor module (fig. 5) with at least one sensor element 22 24 30 32, wherein the sensor elements 22 24 30 32 are mounted on a flexible support 41 material (claim 1 Adderton) and are contacted via a flexible cover 21.

Regarding claim 12 Adderton et al teaches a flexible stand-off (epoxy) is introduced between the support material and the cover (col. 9 lines 30-35).

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-10 is allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The following claims are deemed to be a distinct and non-obvious improvement of US patent 6637276. US 6637276 teach a flexible housing which contain at least one sensor however, the sensors appear to be completely embedded in the housing and not partially surrounded by the housing being contacted by a flexible cover

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US patent 6637276 teaches a sensor
